Mother/Hero/Broken

Morning song/ early motherhood captured/ emotional distance/ new motherhood. Perhaps this heroic care for her unwell child, but yet a sense of overwhelm & emotional fragility/Alcoholism and ambivalence.

Mother: Typically refers to a female parent, someone who nurtures and cares for her children. Motherlike: Having qualities or characteristics of a mother; motherly.

This perhaps emotionally, physically, or spiritually—due to the challenges she has faced. But yet a sense of overwhelm & emotional fragility/Alcoholism and ambivalence. Morning song/ early motherhood captured/ emotional distance/ new motherhood. But yet a sense of overwhelm & suffering.

A broken heart/she has a broken heart/ a devastation/a mother grieving the loss of her child. A mother's love & pain are central, perhaps this is heroic in her endurance but broken by her suffering.

About a broken mother/ a mother who is heroic in her perseverance & wisdom/ sharing her struggles and the emotional toll these challenges have taken on her.

Hero: Someone admired for courage, outstanding achievements, or noble qualities. Heros can also refer to a genus of freshwater fish in the family Cichlidae.

This perhaps emotionally, physically, or spiritually—due to the challenges she has faced.

But yet a sense of overwhelm & emotional fragility/Alcoholism and ambivalence.

Parting/letting go as the children leave the nest/an empty nest/an emotional cost/how much/courage.

Broken: Describes something that is damaged, not functioning, or emotionally hurt. Brokenness: The state or quality of being broken.

This perhaps emotionally, physically, or spiritually—due to the challenges she has faced.

But yet a sense of overwhelm & emotional fragility/Alcoholism and ambivalence. Parting/letting go as the children leave the nest/an empty nest/an emotional cost/how much/courage. An empty nest/an emotional cost an empty nest/an emotional cost an empty nest/an emotional cost an empty nest/an emotional cost/ But yet a sense of overwhelm & suffering.